APEX guarantees that APEX™ Colored Cast Acrylic Sheet for exterior applications will comply with the performance specifications listed by APEX in the information below for a period of ten years, subject to the following conditions:

1. The warranty period of ten years commences from the date of delivery of the APEX™ colored product to the end customer relating to the warranty.
2. The warranty relates to the UV transmission of the sheet as delivered and in particular:
 - The sheet must be appropriately stored and transported prior to fabrication and installation (Manufacturer's suggestions are available on request).

3. APEX must be provided with immediate advice of any potential claim. Enough evidence of any potential claim must be provided to APEX, and APEX or its authorized representatives must be allowed adequate facilities to substantiate the claim.
4. If any APEX™ acrylic sheet does not meet APEX's satisfaction as complying with the manufacturer's performance specifications within the 10-year stipulated period, APEX will replace the deemed non-compliant sheet on an ex-works basis with an equivalent quantity of APEX™ acrylic sheet. APEX shall under no circumstances be responsible for any other damage or loss, howsoever arising, whether directly or indirectly.
5. APEX provides no warranty, guarantee, or implied statement/advice in relation to APEX™ acrylic sheet apart from the guarantee given herein.
